

The background of the poster is a dark blue night sky with a large, glowing white full moon. Several black silhouettes of bats are flying across the moon. In the foreground, there are several glowing orange jack-o'-lanterns with various faces, some with triangular eyes and jagged mouths. To the left, there is a black silhouette of a fence and a white spiderweb. To the right, there is a grey tombstone with the letters 'RIP' on it. The overall theme is Halloween.
